The Bee-Hive SOCIETY

By MELLIFICIA. Thursday, February 27, 1913.

SOCIETY turned out gloriously at the Ak-Sar-Ben performance last evening at the Brandeis theater. There was a wide trace of quiet but appreciative applause from the attendance, and those of it who knew the different performers taking the parts of both commonplace and opulent Egyptians of old, added an extra twinge of satisfaction to their personal enjoyment of the production.

Although the reigning queen of Ak-Sar-Ben and many others of the royal line of Quivera are spending the winter months in warmer climes, still society was well represented last evening at the Brandeis.

In one of the boxes was Mrs. W. D. Hosford, an ex-queen of Ak-Sar-Ben. In another box was Mr. Charles Kountze, who has been crowned king. In the audience were a large number of ex-kings and queens and members of the board of governors.

Mr. Charles Beaton, a prominent member of the board, entertained at a box party, followed by supper, at the Omaha club. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Austin, Mr. and Mrs. MacMillan Harding, Mrs. A. J. Beaton, Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Beaton and Mr. Paul Beaton. Another box party, also having supper at the club, included: Mr. and Mrs. John A. McShane, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Hosford, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Burns and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Burns, Jr.

One of the largest box parties attending the opera afterwards had supper at the club. They were seated at the round table, which had a centerpiece of pink roses. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Kountze, Mr. and Mrs. Osmond T. Eastman, Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Summers, Mrs. Daniel Wheeler, Jr.; Mr. W. H. McCord, Mr. Luther Drake.

WIDOW HOLDS COUNTY FOR HUSBAND'S DEATH

"Syrup of Figs" for Indigestion, Biliousness and Constipation

Better than castor oil, calomel or cathartics to cleanse your stomach, liver and 30 feet of bowels. Harmless Laxative for men, women and children.

Primitive folks did not need laxatives. They lived outdoors, ate plenty of fruit, and all of their food was coarse. We modern people are different. We exercise too little, eat little fruit, and our food is too fine—too rich.

We simply can't have our ten yards of bowels clogged up, liver choked with sour bile and stomach full of foul effete matter and feel well. It means that the food and waste retained in the stomach and thirty feet of bowels ferment—decay. The decay creates poisons, gases and acids, and those poisons are sucked into the blood through the very ducts intended to suck in the nutriment. Then we have sick headache, become dull, bilious, tongue coated, nervous, meals don't digest, and we feel miserable all over. So we must make our choice. We must live like primitive folks, else we must take artificial means to move the excess bile and waste matter on and out of the system.

The safest, most harmless and effective stomach, liver and bowel cleanser we have is a natural fruit and senna and aromatic. Don't think you are drugging yourself. Syrup of Figs can be constantly used without harm. Ask your druggist for "Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna," and see on the label that it is prepared by The California Fig Syrup Company. This is the only genuine—the old reliable. Refuse with contempt, the so-called Fig Syrup imitations sometimes offered to deceive you.—Advertisement.
